C Dm F C
It's a mighty long road - from the east to the west
C Dm F G
And I've traveled that road - with the worst and the best
C Em F Fm
But I know that you're mine - so I'd go anytime
C Dm
I got a feeling today
C G C
I'd like to steal you away

Give me two reasons why I could have acted so poor
I never opened my eyes till you walked out the door
And the feeling's so strange 'cause there's nothing can change
I had a feeling that day
When I gave you away

One and one is two in any man's game
But living here without you is a heart breaking shame
So I'll tell you in song that I know I was wrong
I got a feeling today
I'd like to steal you away
