

COULD'VE BEEN IN KANSAS

Words & Music by Sherri Reese

G D
If I'd seen the warning
Em C
That a storm was forming
G D
I would've held you oh so tight
C
Never let the wind blow me
G D C
Out of your sight
D
One day the sky was clear and blue
The next I could've been in Kansas
G D
For all I knew
For all I knew
G
Could've been in Kansas
D C G
For all I knew
Lights were flashing
Warning me to take cover
Should've outrun the clouds
Should've outrun the thunder
But I stood still
Closed my eyes in the dark
That whirlwind tore right through my heart
Chorus
Two fronts clashed
One hot one cold
Swirling in a circle
Spun me out of control
The woman in the mirror
I didn't even know
Couldn't see where I was going
When the wind began to blow
Chorus

You couldn't find me

I was out of reach
But you never gave up

Your search for me
You fought the wind

Weathered the rain
Found my hand
G
Brought me home again
D C
Home again
G D
Brought me home again
Home again
The storm held it's ground
For days and days
The road was buried
I had lost my way
Miles and miles of chaos and debris
But you never lost your belief in me
Next day the sky was clear and blue
Said goodbye to Kansas - thanks to you
Thanks to you
Said goodbye to Kansas - thanks to you
Thanks to you
