

THERE'S A NEW SONG BURNING IN MY SOUL

Words & Music by Steve Suffett. Lyrics by Joe LaMay & Steve Suffett

Unreleased

There's a new song burning in my soul
There's a new song burning in my soul
And I'm shouting every word
With a voice that must be heard
There's a new song burning in my soul

There's a new sun rising with the dawn
There's a new sun rising with the dawn
Its light will lead the way
To a new and brighter day
There's a new sun rising with the dawn

There's a new breeze blowing 'cross the land
There's a new breeze blowing 'cross the land
And it brings the gentle rain
That'll wash away the pain
There's a new breeze blowing 'cross the land

There's a new road calling out for me
There's a new road calling out for me
I must make this journey mine
All my troubles left behind
There's a new road calling out for me

There's a new song burning in my soul
There's a new song burning in my soul
And I'm shouting every word
With a voice that must be heard
There's a new song burning in my soul
